

Review Form:

International Journal of Research Studies in Language Learning

Instructions: The journal is committed to high academic standards, treating publication as a collaborative process between Author, Reviewers and Editors. The goal of the peer review process is to improve the academic and scientific quality of the submissions. Reviewers will work with the Author through a collaborative process to ensure academic and scientific integrity. Constructive criticism is a necessary part of this collaborative effort and as such shall be offered and received in a professional manner. Reviewers are expected to return their reviews within two weeks (14 days), unless otherwise specified by the Editor. Reviewers are encouraged to insert their comments directly into the manuscript using the word processor editing tools.
